

ULKOASIAINMINISTERIÖN
JULKAISUJA

9 2005

BUILDING DEMOCRACY FROM MANILA TO DOHA:

The Evolution of the Movement of New or Restored Democracies

Building Democracy from Manila to Doha:

The Evolution of the Movement of New or Restored Democracies

Table of Contents

About this Publication

by Tapio Kanninen and Katarina Sehm Patomäki 5

Foreword

by Erkki Tuomioja, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Finland..... 9

PART I: THE GOVERNMENTAL PROCESS OF THE NEW OR RESTORED DEMOCRACIES (NRD) MOVEMENT

1. History and Evolution of the New or Restored Democracies Movement

by Petru Dumitriu, Deputy Permanent Representative of Romania to the United Nations in Geneva 15

2. An International Normative Framework For Democratization

by Roy Lee, Professor of Law at Columbia University Law School, and Consultant to the UN..... 41

Section I: Instruments of Commitments and Practices Relevant to Democracy and Governance 46

Section II: Normative Framework of Constituent Elements..... 84

Section III: Recommendations..... 127

3. The Ulaanbaatar Declaration: Democracy, Good Governance and Civil Society, 10-12 September 2003 133

4. Ulaanbaatar Plan of Action 144

PART II: THE PARLIAMENTARY PROCESS OF THE NRD MOVEMENT

5. Parliamentarians, the Inter-Parliamentary Union and the New or Restored Democracies Process

by Martin Chungong, Director of the Inter-Parliamentarian Union's Division for the Promotion of Democracy 155

6. Declaration of the Parliamentarians' Forum held on the occasion of the Fifth International Conference of New or Restored Democracies in Ulaanbaatar, 11 September 2003 163

PART III: THE CIVIL SOCIETY PROCESS OF THE NRD MOVEMENT

7. Declaration, Recommendations and Plan of Action for Civil Society Partnerships for Democracy

International Civil Society Forum of the Ulaanbaatar Conference, 9 September 2003 173

8. Developing the Civil Society Forum: A Critical Voice from Civil Society

by Katarina Sehm-Patomäki, Executive Secretary of NIGD (Network Institute for Global Democratization)..... 183

PART IV: GLOBAL DEMOCRACY

9. Is Democracy Possible without Global Democracy?

by Heikki Patomäki, Professor of International Relations at the University of Helsinki and Research Director of NIGD (Network Institute for Global Democratization)..... 195

About the Authors.....210