

Refugee Studies Centre Resources CD-ROM

Issue 1 - January 2005

Contents:

This CD-ROM aims to improve the global availability of the Refugee Studies Centre's research and information resources. It contains over 700 items, most published within the last five years.

Resources Include:

- Forced Migration Review
- Forced Migration Online Research Guides
- Refugee Studies Centre Working Papers
- Refugee Studies Centre Project Reports
- Refugee Studies Centre Annual Reports

Queen Elizabeth House
Department of International Development
University of Oxford

Adobe, the Adobe logo, Acrobat and Reader are either registered trademarks or trademarks of Adobe Systems Incorporated in the United States and/or other countries.

CD-ROM Developed By:

Refugee Studies Centre
Queen Elizabeth House
University of Oxford
21 St Giles
Oxford, OX1 3LA
United Kingdom

Tel: +44 (0) 1865 270722
Fax: +44 (0) 1865 270721
Email: rsc@qeh.ox.ac.uk
Website: www.rsc.ox.ac.uk

*Refugee
Studies
Centre*

The Refugee Studies Centre has an international reputation as the leading multidisciplinary centre for research and teaching on the causes and consequences of forced migration. Its philosophy is to combine world-class academic research with a commitment to improving the lives and situation of some of the world's most disadvantaged people.

How to use this CD-ROM:

Insert the CD-ROM into your PC's CD-ROM drive; the CD-ROM should start automatically. If it does not load automatically, please locate the disk 'RSC CD-ROM 2005' in 'My Computer' and double-click on the file called 'index.htm'.

System requirements:

Windows PC (Pentium or greater recommended)
Microsoft Windows 95, 98, NT, 2000, XP
(Other operating systems are not supported at this time)
A Web browser (Internet Explorer 4, Firefox or other Mozilla browsers recommended)

© Refugee Studies Centre 2005