

the Courier

the magazine of ACP-EU development cooperation

DOSSIER
HIV/AIDS

COUNTRY REPORT
Suriname

Issue 188 September-October 2001

Contents

Meeting point

Boutros Boutros-Ghali, Secretary-General of the International Organisation of the Francophonie
"A dialogue of cultures"

2

News

EU-Cuba – renewing the dialogue

6

Civil society; a new role under Cotonou?

8

Global warming –how to make Kyoto work

10

Dossier: HIV/AIDS

12

"To stop AIDS, Africa must start talking about sex"
Pascoal Mocumbi, Prime Minister of Mozambique

15

Ray of hope in Senegal, as transmission rates slow

16

The HIV/AIDS policy of the European Community

19

"We need a global approach" Dr Pa'o Luteru,
Assistant Secretary-General of the ACP Group

22

Desperately seeking a vaccine

24

Uganda turns the epidemic around

27

Survivors not just sufferers:
one HIV-positive man's story

31

Haiti: "No better no worse"

34

When ignorance kills

38

Men who love other men

40

How many Batswana will be alive in 2021?

42

Education is a crucial tool

44

AIDS in South Africa – bold steps in a discouraging climate

46

Violence against women:
Breaking the silence

48

Choreographing life:
fighting mother-to-child transmission

50

Papua New Guinea, finding the right approach

52

Asia/Pacific: Major congress on AIDS

54

Culture and Society

Ahmadou Kourouma: between fiction and reality

55

Fossils, culture and community in Northern Malawi

57

© Michael Jensen Mich-Jen@post3.tele.dk

Postal Address

The ACP-EU Courier
European Commission
200 rue de la Loi
1049 Brussels
Belgium

Address for visitors

12 rue de Genève
1140 Brussels
Belgium
<http://europa.eu.int/comm/development/publicat/courier>

ACP General Secretariat

451 avenue Georges Henri 1200 Brussels
tel: + 32.2.7430600
fax: + 32.2.7355573
info@acpsec.org
<http://www.acpsec.org>

Publisher

Koos Richelle

Director of Publication

Leonidas Antonakopoulos

Editor

Dorothy Morrissey
dorothy.morrissey@cec.eu.int

Journalist

Aya Kasasa
ayakas1@yahoo.fr

Production

Mounia Lakhdar-Hamina
mounia.lakhdar-hamina@cec.eu.int

Documentation

Constance Lusinde Zainati development@cec.eu.int

Subscriptions

fax: +32.2.299.3002

Cover

Bath time at Montgomery Heights orphanage
© Tom Stoddart/IPG 2001d
ipg@katzpictures.com
<http://www.katzpictures.com>

Published in English and French.

Signed articles express the opinion of the author and do not necessarily represent the opinions of the EU or the ACP Group.

Articles can be reproduced, but
The ACP-EU Courier should be credited.

Children

Child labour: can trade sanctions or boycotts lead to elimination?

59

Alcinda Honwana:
Restoring hope for children of war

60

Growing up on the streets of Kinshasa

63

Country report: Suriname

65

Suriname in the ACP context

Jean-Robert Goulongana, Secretary-General of the ACP Group, shares his impressions on his recent visit 66

Suriname – an ethnic mix with a chequered past and future prospects

69

“Opening up in order to grow”
Interview with Foreign Minister
Marie Levens

73

Suriname and regional integration –
the “Guyana Plateau”

75

Parliamentary opposition
in a political mosaic:

Interview with Janie Simons

77

HIV/AIDS: setting up a prevention network

79

Bananas:
an endangered sector

81

Have faith in the people:
Stanley Ragoebarsingh, Minister of Planning and Development Cooperation

83

Development: from the bottom up

84

Profile

85

Book reviews

86

The “Lorenzo Natali” Prize for Journalism

87

Letters

88

Maps

89

The ACP-EU Courier

is the main publication of the African, Caribbean and Pacific countries and the European Union. The EU provides ACP countries with preferential access to EC markets and substantial development assistance (some two to three billion Euros a year). The ACP and EU cooperate at a political level and engage in a continuous political dialogue: in trade, to promote the integration of the ACP countries into the world economy and in development assistance, with the clear objective of promoting sustainable development and reducing poverty.