This document was prepared by staff in the Social Development Family of the World Bank. The Environment, Rural Development, and Social Development Families are part of the Environmentally and Socially Sustainable Development (ESSD) Network. The Social Development Family is made up of World Bank staff working on social issues.

Documents in the Social Development report series are not formal publications of the World Bank. They are informal documents that are circulated to encourage discussion and comment within the development community. The Social Development Family also produces Social Development Papers, Social Development Working Papers, and Social Development Notes, which are formally reviewed and edited by the Social Development Family.

The findings, interpretations, judgments, and conclusions expressed in this document are those of the author(s) and should not be attributed to the World Bank, to its affiliated organizations, or to members of the Board of Executive Directors or the governments they represent.
