CATALOGUE 2001/2002

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

The Nordic Africa Institute has published more than 500 academic titles on topics ranging from rural development to refugees and from anthropology to structural adjustment and gender issues. This catalogue includes the most current titles. Should you wish to receive a complete list of our titles, please request a copy or visit our website www.nai.uu.se. Our On-Line Catalogue includes a list of titles, bibliographic information, subject index and ordering information. You can also order the books on-line.

E-publishing

During 2001/2002 we will introduce electronic publishing on our website. To start with, the series Current African Issues, Discussion Papers and Research Reports will be available electronically. Monographs and anthologies which are currently out-of-print will gradually also be available electronically.

Examination and review copies

We actively encourage the use of our publications for educational purposes. If a specific title is being considered for use as a textbook, please contact us. Complimentary copies are also available to book review editors interested in reviewing our publications. Requests for examination and review copies must be made under an institutional letterhead or by using an institutional e-mail address.

Our electronic mailing list

The Nordic Africa Institute publishes several new titles each month. To regularly receive information on forthcoming titles you may be included on our electronic mailing list by sending an e-mail to orders@nai.uu.se.

Standing order special offer during 2001/2002

(not applicable in the UK/Ireland and North America/Caribbean)

A 25% discount is available to institutions that order our English titles through a standing order (appr. 20–30 titles per year). Requests for standing orders should be submitted directly to the Institute under an institutional letterhead or by institutional e-mail.

Ordering information

For complete ordering addresses and information: see page 15.
