Acknowledgements

6 We would like to thank first of all: Mrs. Françoise Lieberherr, head of the Urban Section at the DDC, who not only sponsored this publication but also encouraged us and gave us precious advice throughout our research. We are also grateful to Mrs Catherine Minetti, without whom we would not have been able to complete the manuscript.

We are grateful to Mr. Marc Hufty for his collaboration at the beginning of our research, in particular for having identified various web sites and found ODA statistics. We would also like to thank Mrs. Nathalie Tanner for proof reading the manuscript.

Finally we would like to express our gratitude to all those persons within the agencies who, devoting much time and effort, contributed significantly to the present publication.
