

Oxfam Publishing

Tel: +44 (0) 1865 312255
Fax: +44 (0) 1865 312393
Email: publish@oxfam.org.uk

October 2004

Dear Colleague

Please find enclosed the new Oxfam catalogue of books and journals on development and humanitarian issues, and the 2005 flyers for our two journals, Development in Practice and Gender and Development.

OXFAM PUBLISHING CATALOGUE 2004/5

This catalogue features 44 new publications, to support a variety of different areas of work:

- publications sharing experience from programme work, to inform programme management and development, include AIDS on the Agenda (p2), and the Sphere Handbook 2004 edition (p14);
- useful, practical guides for development practitioners, such as Mainstreaming HIV/AIDS in Development and Humanitarian Programmes (p2) and Practising Gender Analysis in Education (p17);
- publications sharing analysis of development policy and practice, including Gender, Development, and Trade (p21) and Gender Equality and Men (p25);
- materials to help inform and influence public policy, such as Rigged Rules and Double Standards (p7) and Exploding the Migration Myths (p8);
- Action Against Small Arms (p11), Disability, Equality, and Human Rights (p16), and the Sphere Training Package (p15) are examples of invaluable new training resources for practitioners and activists;
- accessible reference and background material, including the India Country Profile (p30), and news of our new series with Pluto Press: small guides to big issues.
- New to Oxfam Publishing: Oxfam's new policy papers and reports, such as Trading Away our Rights (p6) and Shattered Lives (p11), to support campaigning and advocacy work. Our fully searchable online database now includes over 150 Oxfam policy papers available free online.

ORDERING IS EASY

Oxfam publications are available from all good bookshops and from our distributors worldwide – please see the inside back cover for your nearest contact. You can also order direct online or by using the order form in the centre of the catalogue

To encourage greater access to our publications for readers in the South, we are offering:

- free postage and packing to customers in Low- and Middle-Income Countries
- special journal rates to subscribers in Low- and Middle-Income Countries
- extended list of local distributors, selling our publications priced in local currency

OXFAM PUBLICATIONS ONLINE at www.oxfam.org.uk/publications

Our new website features more detailed information on all the publications in this print catalogue, and a secure online ordering system. Additional information includes tables of contents, links, sample chapters, and in some cases whole texts available free as pdf files. You can also now search the online catalogue for over 150 Oxfam policy papers, available to download free.

I am sure you will find much of interest in our website, and in the new Oxfam Publishing Catalogue 2004/5. If you have any queries or feedback, or would like more information about Oxfam publications, please do not hesitate to contact me at the address above.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes

Jenny Hudson, Oxfam Publishing

Oxfam works with others to find lasting solutions to poverty and suffering