

Two new publications from Creative Exchange

A Sense Of Belonging

Creative Exchange has launched a report and DVD, A Sense of Belonging, which addresses the role of arts and culture in the integration of refugees and asylum seekers. A Sense of Belonging is the first major report on the role of both culture (as a foundation for human development) and arts (as a means of expression, communication and sharing) in the resettlement process. The report has emerged from a 12-month research project involving 73 projects across the UK – 33 of which were explored in detail. 14 case studies were selected as exemplary projects, and nine of these feature in a DVD of 'video case studies'.

Copies (with DVD) are priced at £15 (UK Sterling) and copies (without DVD) are priced £10 (UK Sterling), plus Postage and Packaging.

Culture: Hidden Development

Creative Exchange has launched a new landmark report on Culture and International Development, funded by the UK's Department for International Development. It is intended to serve as a practical working guide to Culture and Development for the international development sector.

Copies are priced £10 (UK Sterling), plus Postage and Packaging.

Orders

Orders should be placed directly with our distributor, Eco Distribution, and not with Creative Exchange. Please contact: Jill Chandler, Eco Distribution, email: jill.chandler@virgin.net.

Creative Exchange Partners' Discount

Copies of both reports are available to Creative Exchange partners at a discount of 10 per cent off the publication price. When ordering your copy please state your partnership number, which appears on your annual partnership renewal form. The discount cannot be claimed without this number.

Please note that receipt of Creative Exchange email bulletins does not necessarily indicate you are a Creative Exchange Partner – Partners are those who enrol as members of our network and pay an annual partnership fee.

Further information from www.creativexchange.org