

new....new.....new.....new.... INTRAC Seminar Series

A new weekly series of half day seminars is to be held in London in April and May. Each seminar deals with a topic of current interest to the development NGO world and is designed to bring busy development workers up-to-date on the issue in question. The seminar series also provides a forum for sharing experiences relating to the topic in question, enabling us all to learn from each other.

If you would like further information about this series of seminars please phone or email Janice Giffen at INTRAC.

If enough people are interested and an agency is able and willing to take the lead, seminars could be selected and run back-to-back during a two or three day period in, for instance, The Hague or Dublin.
